As there has been some little discussion as to the particular spot of his birth, it may not be amiss, writing for an historical magazine, to produce the following decisive testimony on the subject. In a letter, the original of which is before us, to Mr. Henry Panton, dated Sunnyside, Feb.15, 1850, Mr. Irving states precisely the place of his birth. The house in which I was born was No.131 William-street, about half-way between John and Fulton streets. Within a very few weeks after my birth the family moved into a house nearly opposite, which my father had recently purchased; it was No.12. and has recently been pulled down and a large edifice built on its site. It had been occupied by a British commissary during the war; the broad piazza was on the street door, and the garden was full of choice fruit-trees, apricots, green-gages, nectarines--, C. It is the first home of which Mr....
