Even the diving seal seems pleased with all around him, and, rolling his head upon its oily hinges, breathes with delight the elastic air. About a mile eastward of the Jasper Island, there is a cliff of conglomerate, fifty feet high; it stands unconnected with any other rocks of the class, and its summit is well cleared, and cultivated. The feldspathic rock, of a deep brick-red colour, then occupies the shore to the entrance of the Magaguadavic. A small uninhabited island, at the entrance of this river, composed of hornblende trap,...
