Auszug: . . . us in these duties must instruct us also of this inability, and teach us also the remedies for it. It teaches us that by one man all was lost, and the bond broken between God and us, and that by one man the bond has been repaired. We are born so contrary to this love of God, and it is so necessary that we must be born sinful, or God would be unjust. Every religion is false which as to its faith does not adore one God as origin of all things, and as to its morals does not love one sole God as the object of all things. In every religion we must be sincere, true heathens, true Jews, true Christians. THE EXCELLENCE OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION. When I see the blindness and the misery of man, when I survey the whole dumb Universe, and man without light, left to himself, and lost, as it were, in this corner of the Universe, not knowing who has placed him here, what he has come to do, what will become of him when he dies, and incapable of any knowledge whatever, I fall into terror like that of a man who, having been carried in his sleep to an island desert and terrible, should awake ignorant of his whereabouts and with no means of escape; and thereupon I wonder how those in so miserable a state do not fall into despair. I see other persons around me, of like nature, I...
