Humanitas Media Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 222 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ghosts Birthdays is Red Shuttleworth s invocation and - levitation with the dead - a poet s cultural measure of the human menagerie: heroes, villains, antiheroes, writers, painters, boxers, poets, politicians, cowboy robbers, killers - an incredible range of characters in the large world Red Shuttleworth breathes alive. His poetry is always true to reveal human folly - the absurdities that contain a kind of beauty only when articulated by a true poet with a head and a heart. I m knocked to the mat with what he discovers - his elegiac voice bringing us the ghosts of those about to be lost in the shadows of the digital disintegrating world: Olson, Dorn, Elvis, Ernest, Gabby, Will, Hank, Lyndon, Sonny, Hunter, and don t leave out Gertrude Stein eating popcorn waving fatty arms, at the movies spilling popcorn, laughing. And on and on. I ve always wanted to cross the poetry borders with William Carlos Williams quote for the Canadian poet, Irving Layton when W.C.W. said of Layton, When I clapped eyes on his poems. I let out a yell of joy! Likewise for me here - and Red Shuttleworth s happy birthday to the whole damn thing! -- Barry McKinnon, author of In the Millennium and The The (Finalist, 1981, Governor General s Award for Poetry).
