Not illustrated. 1823 Excerpt: . . . the prisoner, was the man; she was certain of it. Cross-examined. --He was coming from Sunderland: he was very mild when he spoke. She was never sent for to be examined before Tuesday last: she could swear that was the very man. John Close was in the Durham militia in 1815, a corporal. They marched into Newcastle on the 26th of August 1815. John Eden was in the same company. He had a wife. A guard report was kept in order to mention the prisoners confined, and the nature of the crime. John Eden was absent from the company on the 28th day of August. Witness recollected that very well. Eden had been absent on the evening parade of Sunday, and the whole day Monday. The report he held in his hand had been made by his direction, and in it he was entered absent for two days. (The report was unintelligible to the Court, and was most unintelligibly explained by the witness. ) Evidence was next given with respect to George Wolfe, the son. William Boyd, a police-officer of the city of Edinburgh, had searched the flat (floor) occupied by George Wolfe, on the 27th of October last, and found a pocket-book in a chest, which was not locked. His wife and three officers were with him. That shown was the book; he had made a small tear upon it for a mark. George Wolfe had not been present. Cross-examined by Mr Holt At that...
