Reviews

It is straightforward in go through easier to recognize. I actually have study and that i am sure that i will going to study yet again again down the road. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Woburn Records of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, Vol. 2: From 1640 to 1873 On petition received from the Rumford Historical Association, the City Council of Woburn, in May, 1890, passed the following vote: - Ordered, That the Mayor be and hereby is authorized to have printed twenty-five hundred copies of his manuscript record of deaths, and that the expense therefor be paid out of the Miscellaneous Department. And it is further Ordered, That the printed copies be deposited with the City Treasurer, who shall dispose of them to any and all persons for twenty-five cents a copy, and all sums received by him therefor shall be placed to the credit of the Miscellaneous Department. In pursuance of this vote the following pages are now presented to the public. In order to add to and perfect the record, I engaged Miss J. Gertrude Menard to assist me in comparing it with the data to be found on the gravestones in both the Salem Street and Calvary Cemeteries. Our comparison has resulted in the addition of over four hundred names to the recorded list, and in the discovery of a number of discrepancies between the clerk s records and those chiselled on the gravestones. These additions and corrections have been inserted in their proper chronological place, and for the purpose of distinguishing them from the town clerk s records, the word Gravestone has been added to each additional or corrected entry. In order still further to complete the Woburn record of deaths and to preserve for all time memorials which are slowly but surely passing out of existence, - memorials, too, the most sacred and valuable...
